
The Purple Flubbel Bubble
A magical adventure with Billy and Jimmy
A new adventure in the world of the Flubbel-bubbles

A Secret at Night

Psst… can you keep a secret?
Behind Billy’s pillow, something purple and round was glowing.
It was the beginning of an adventure no one at school knew about.

Billy the Bully

Billy teased everyone in class.
Today, he chose Jimmy.
But Jimmy stayed calm, as if he already knew what would happen.

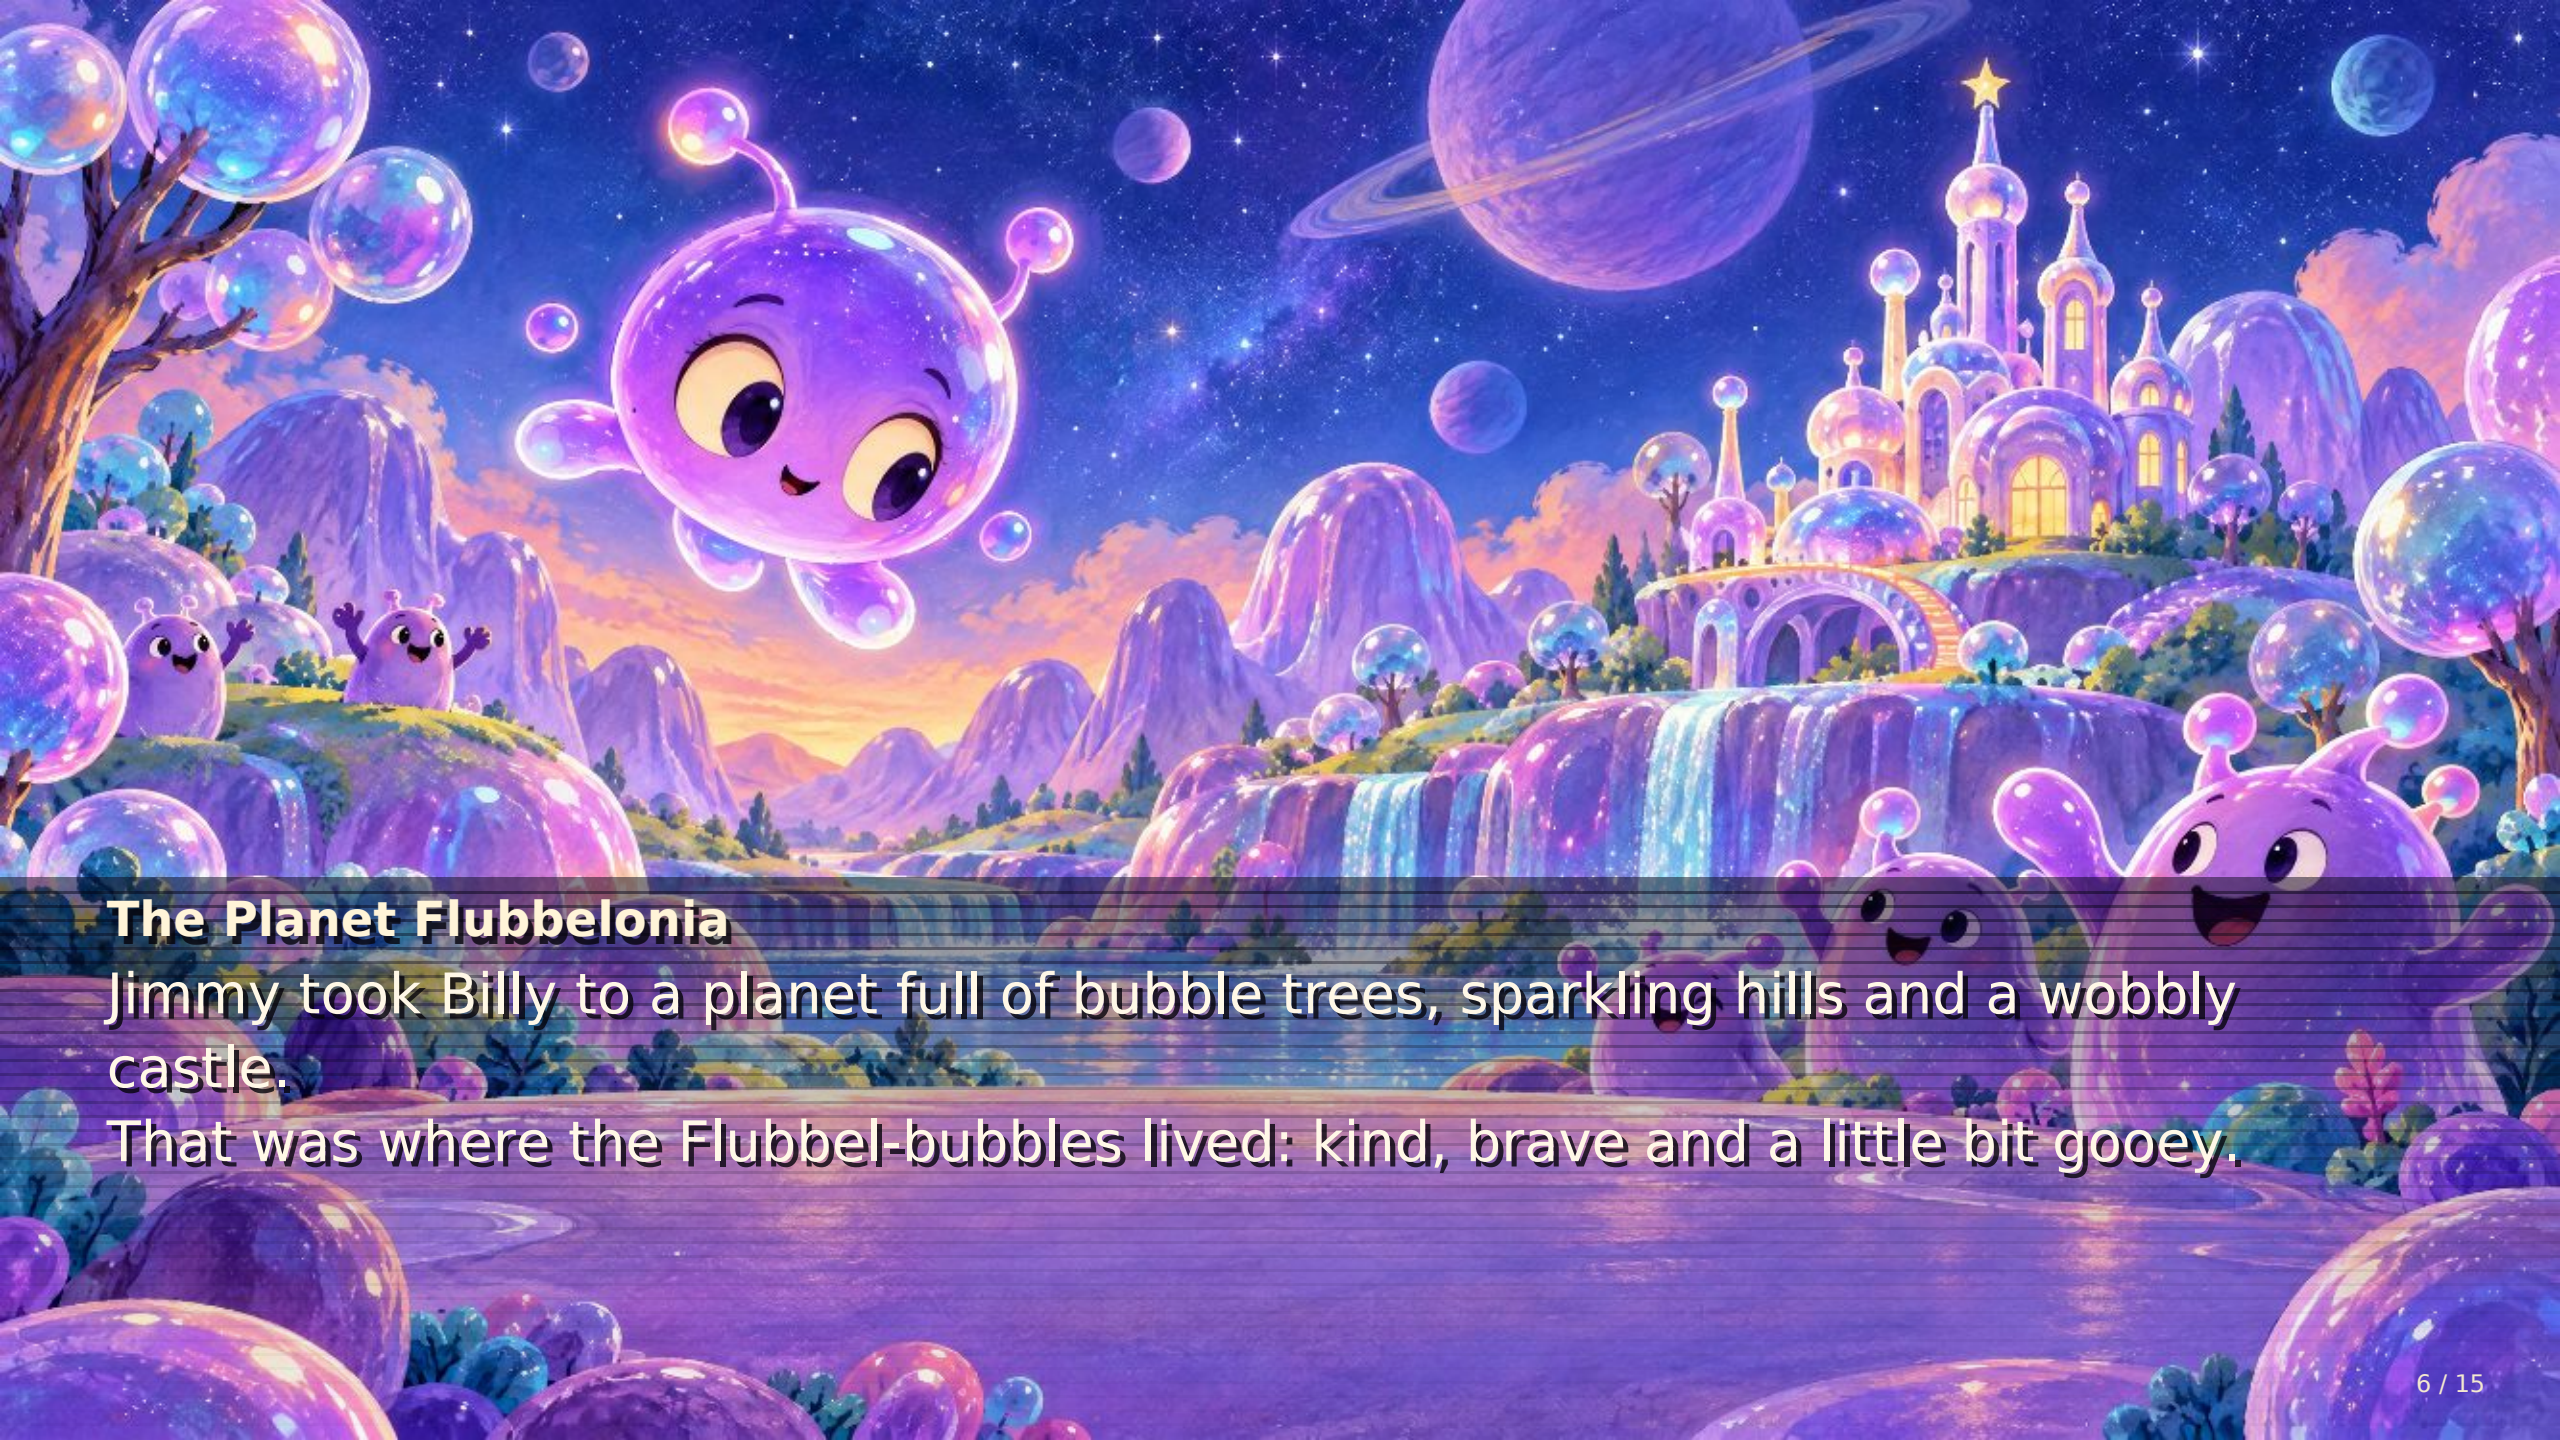

Slippery, Slippery, Smooth!

Jimmy waved his hand.
A purple shimmer danced through the classroom.
“Oops,” said Jimmy. “Now I have to tell you something.”

Billy Becomes a Flubbel Bubble

Poof! Billy turned into a soft purple bubble with big eyes.
Not a monster, but a very special alien.
Jimmy smiled. “Welcome to the Flubbel-bubbles.”

The Planet Flubbelonia

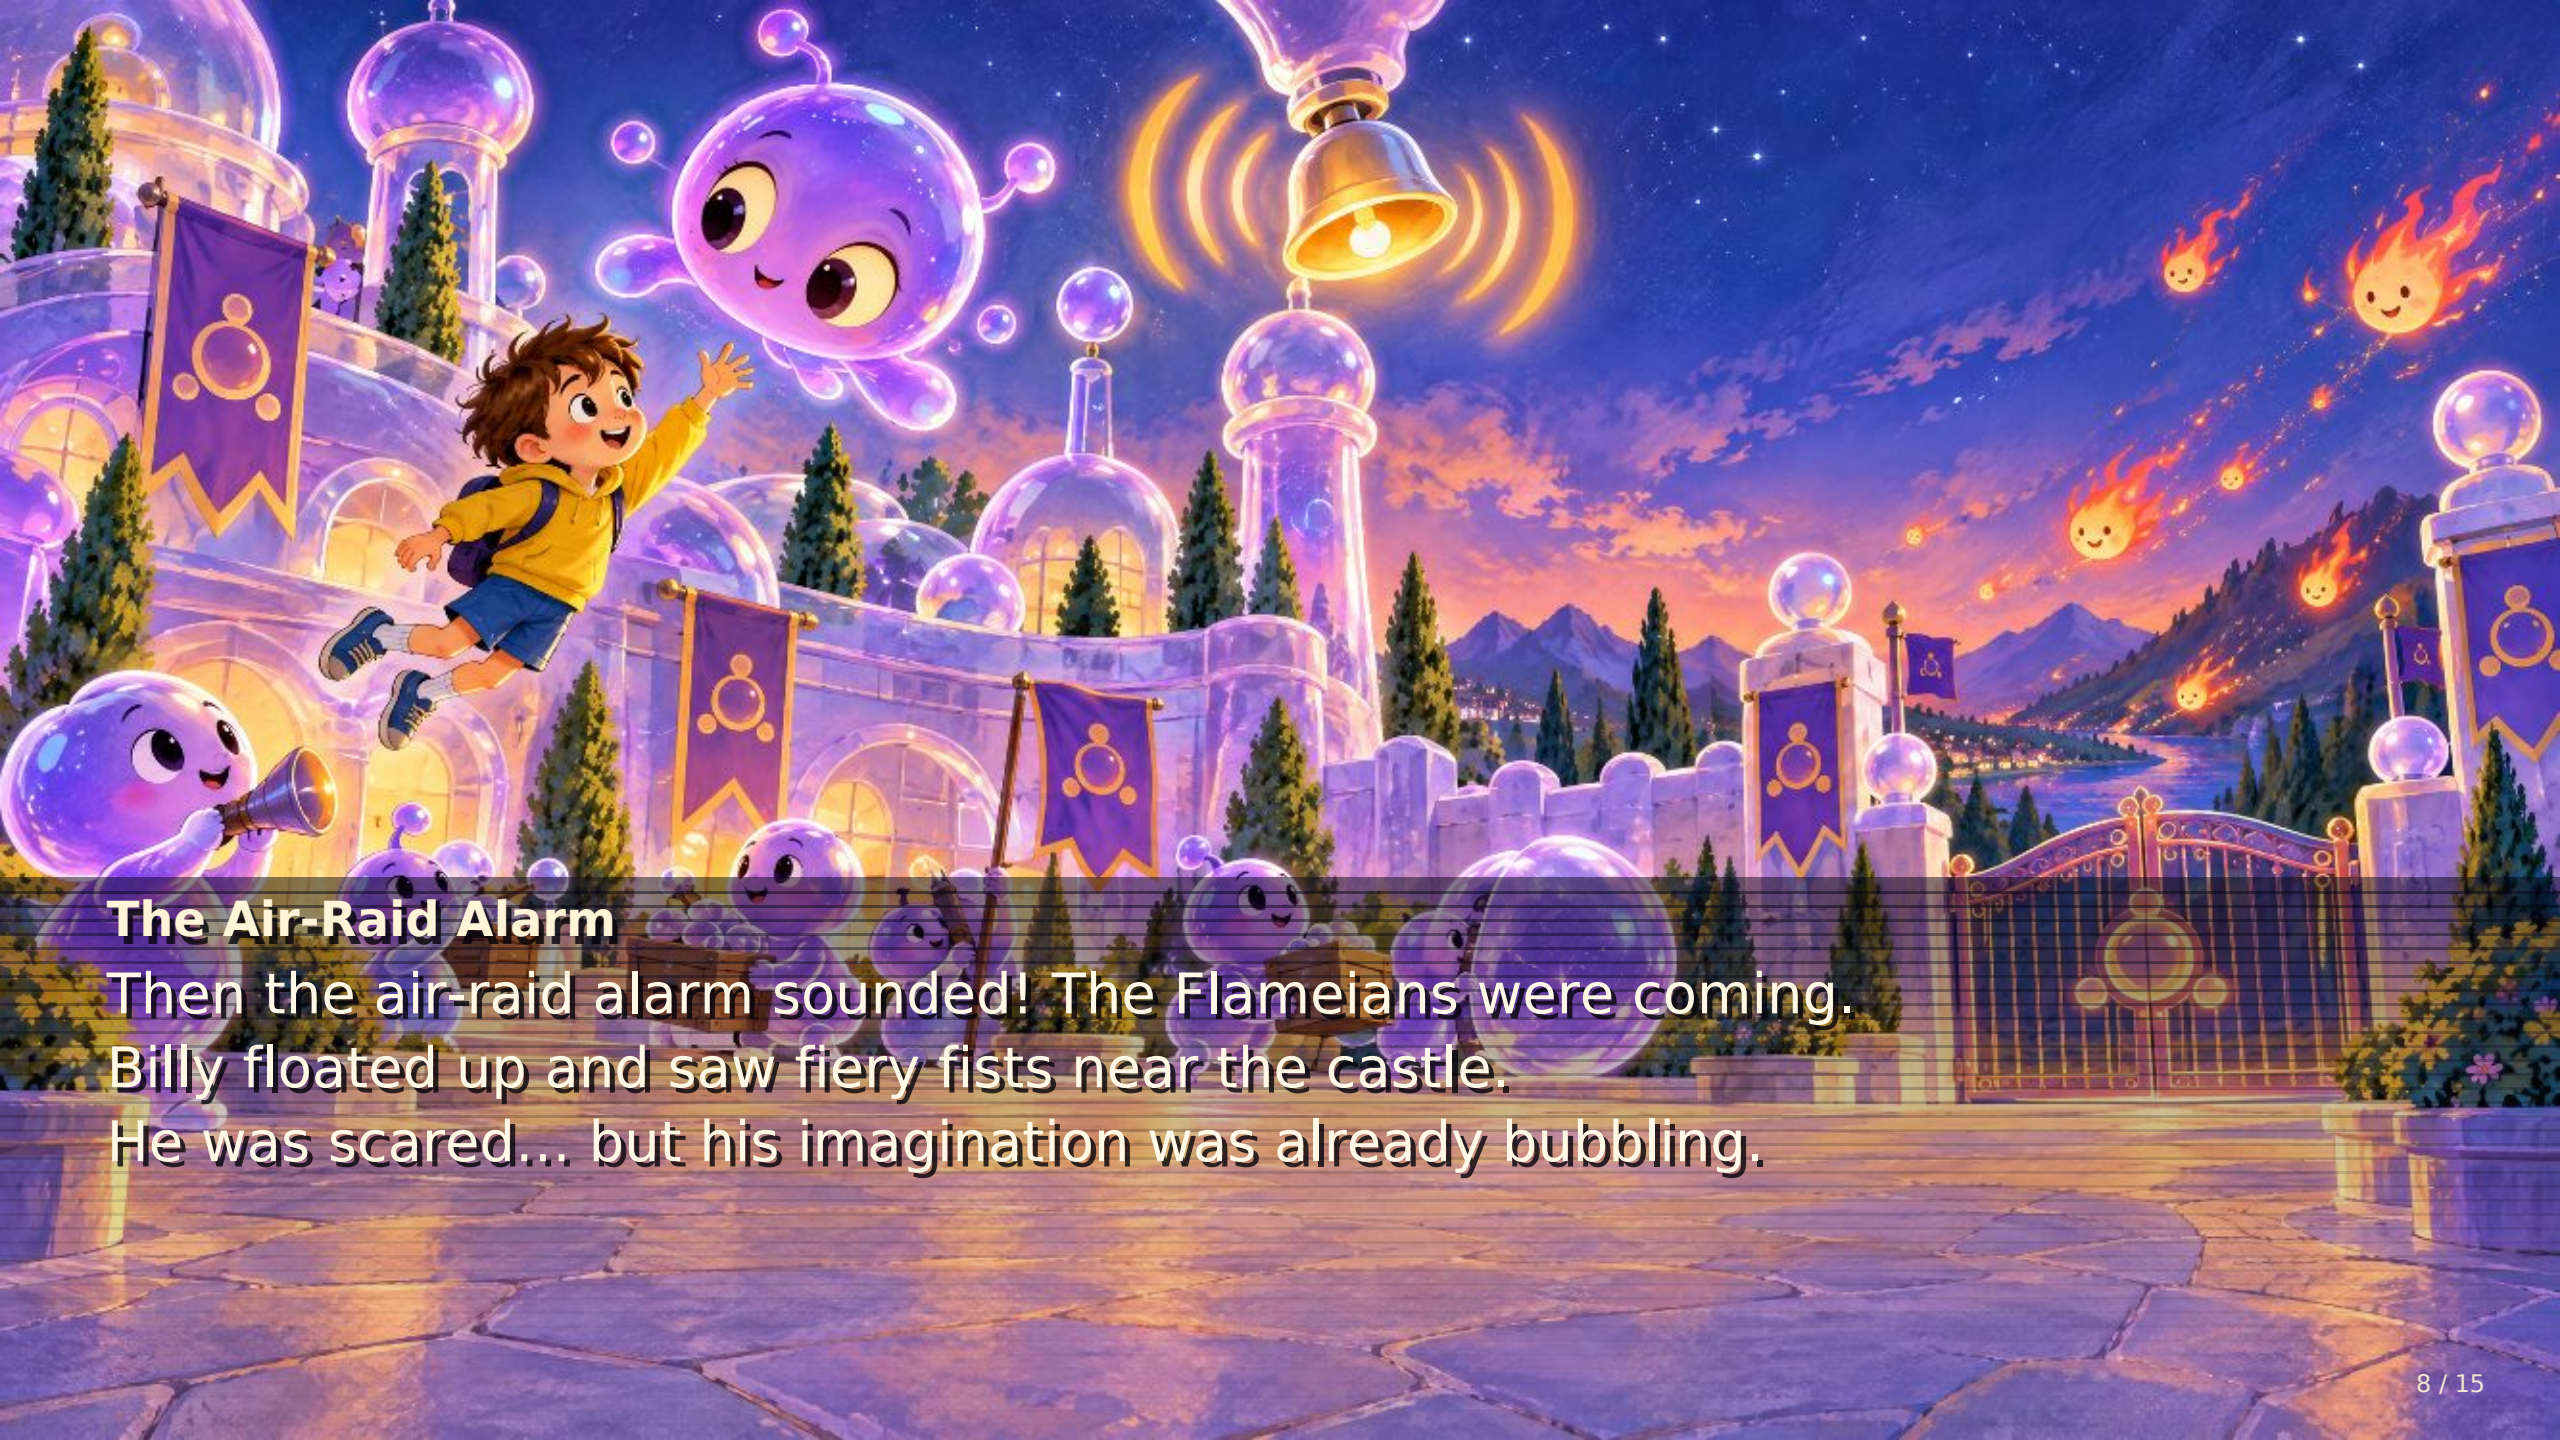

Jimmy took Billy to a planet full of bubble trees, sparkling hills and a wobbly castle.

That was where the Flubbel-bubbles lived: kind, brave and a little bit gooey.

The Flubbel-Sensei

Breakneck, the biggest Flubbel-bubble, became Billy’s teacher.
“You can take any shape,” he said.
“But first, you must learn to relax.”

The Air-Raid Alarm

Then the air-raid alarm sounded! The Flameians were coming.
Billy floated up and saw fiery fists near the castle.
He was scared... but his imagination was already bubbling.

The First Test

Billy thought about water. Lots and lots of water.
Suddenly, he became a gigantic waterfall!
The fiery fists went out and all the Flubbel-bubbles cheered.

Off to Flamerian

“You are the Flubbel-fu master!” shouted Breakneck.
In a silly bubble tank, they travelled through space.
Their destination: the Flameians’ planet.

A Burnt Planet

Flamerian was hot, smoky and bare.

Billy looked at the little flames and said, “We will not fight with anger. We will use our imagination!”

The Wildest Ideas Win

One Flubbel-bubble imagined a giant dog.
Another turned the wasteland into a beach.
And a third made a huge wave. Whoosh! All the flames went out.

Victory!

The space delegation arrived on scooters.
Billy and Breakneck received a golden star for courage and imagination.
Then Billy was returned to his classroom—as if nothing had happened.

Or Did It…?

Jimmy rubbed his hands together. Tiny flames jumped from his fingers.
The classroom changed into a group of Flameians.
“We were never the bad guys,” said Jimmy. “Think about that.”

The Real Secret

Billy understood: when you dare to look differently, you see more than one side of a story.
He and Jimmy decided to laugh, learn and never bully anyone again.
Because kindness is the strongest power of all.
