The boogeyman beater club

NO 3

To start with I have a weird question for you all because:

I do offer my books to you for free, but I hope you would like to review the boogeyman beater club on google or the boogeyman beater club books on amazon....

Just in your own language or your own thoughts you had with that book because De opper boeman or the supreme boogeyman is only a children's book author if I can learn from my mistakes and I can save you from nightmares!

Because life is sometimes not too easy for a child or even a boogeyman, but if the children can remain children then we boogeymen have done our job with kind regards the entire boogeyman beater club!

This is the second boogeyman beater club booklet that, just like where kings are born, consists of 1 story, and not of several parts! We all want something different sometimes and although growing up seems so beautiful and so tough sometimes it is better to remain a child because I am small myself, even though The supreme boogeyman sounds very big, I am also just like you, the little readers / listeners of my boogeyman beater club booklets!

So I wish you a lot of fun with this booklet and hopefully we will understand at the very end why I called this booklet a new beginning! Because we start this booklet with Ben and Ben is like so many stubborn students at the school of many trial and error ...

CHAPTER 1

HERE IT STARTS

NO 6

Ben is a student who still has a lot to learn, but he knows the trade of mischief through and through and with that he often gets into trouble but also out of it again, just like when he dabbed the teacher's car with putty!

That doesn't just go off, no matter how hard you scrub, it doesn't just go off...

So he often sits with the director for that and the director also has to pay for it, such as putting a thumbtack on his chair and when he sat down aaaaauuuuwie!!

Ben's pranks are well known everywhere and everyone runs away from him simply because they're afraid of what he can do...

Because he doesn't back down from anything, not even his parents, the mischief goes on and on until one day he wakes up having had a huge nightmare, one that you should forget as soon as possible but that will stay with you for so long...

NO 7

One that separates the boogeyman from the men and one that makes even the greatest demon or any other supernatural being tremble.

A nightmare about vampires in the dark night who, looking for blood, devour every human and animal with the greatest of ease..

With trembling hands he brushes his teeth and washes his face before going to school.

But even at school, the extra driven vampires are waiting for him!

He sees the yellow glow in their eyes where they quickly change to a blood red color and hungry look 1 walks towards him and turns into smoke when he is almost with him just disappeared into the air..

He hears the bell for a new school day and frightened he walks through all the hungry and bloodthirsty vampires on his way to his classroom, but even the students have turned into the hungry undead!

NO 8

All his friends have turned into those bloodsuckers!

And while the people run for life outside the school building, the classmates lick their lips and show their fangs...

Hunger shines from them when they brush their tongues over their lips and when the fangs seem to get bigger and bigger!

Even the girls who never saw him look at him in love and want to taste his blood and want to suck him dry until the last drop of blood has disappeared in their stomachs....

But Ben is much but not stupid as the classmates slowly approach screaming and the Roman soon grabs him and Rosalie sniffs his neck. But when the teacher taps the blackboard with his big fingers, they leave him alone...

NO 9

Ben looks around and he sees that the bloodthirsty vampires are all staring quietly ahead at the teacher and the blackboard where the nails scrape against the board with a hellish squeaking sound...

All the classmates put their hands over their ears as the beeping goes on for hours, and then there's a thud.

Everyone looks back and sees that Anne has passed out while snoring on her desk.

All classmates are impressed except Ben because he has discovered a new weapon and that is the first one but for example garlic and other things like wooden bars and crosses and other things even...

But where he didn't think about sound and how exactly about sunlight? Because they just walk around in the middle of the day in the full sun.....

CHAPTER 2
HERE IT GOES FURTHER!

NO 11

He immediately realized that, so the garlic, the wooden bars and crosses, he also has to think about whether that is really true...

Anyway sound works so far too.. He's high in his mind when the bell rings for recess and as everyone sprints out like a vampire in dire need, he walks leisurely to the music room...

He hears all the vampires screaming and running and stomping and laughing and he scratches his head again wondering if he is doing the right thing... He is the only human, or so it seems..

All his friends have changed, the people who were left have changed and he wonders what the added value is in fighting them.

He wonders if it is the right thing because they have also left him alone..

Why would he do this?

Why does he have to be the only human in this world? Why if they can change him too and he can join them?

Maybe that's even a much better idea!

NO 12

But that idea quickly vanishes when he thinks of all the people he's going to hurt and the beasts he's going to hurt and then the realization dawns that he's the only human left to stop this terror... And he starts with sound as a weapon because it looked like it worked! So he grabs an electric guitar and plugs it into the amp and plays the best solo of his life, the one that frees him from the first vampires... The first liberating emergency sounds like a car accident and the rest like a chain collision that sends the vampires screaming to dust one by one...

He sees a portable amp and he plugs in his new best friend, ready to get into some mischief!

First he takes some batteries from the cupboard and then he throws the warlock over his shoulder and clips the amplifier to his pocket.

NO 13

Then he walks the guitar like a rock star through the corridors recreating the howling notes of an evil wolf as the vampires go screaming one by one to the ground and are swept to dust by the wind... He plays the stars of the sky and keeps playing as a true blues legend!

And while more and more false notes are being played away by the most beautiful notes on this globe, the redeeming notes!

The vampires seem to get angrier and angrier until 1 gets hold of his guitar and takes it away after which all vampires shoot at him like a cannonball and grab hold of him and sink their teeth into his neck.

NO 14

He feels a sting and he feels his blood being drained, then 1 more and 1 more and then life feels light where it felt heavy before and the lights go out until he wakes up in a dark cold environment...

The Warden's room, who introduces himself as Hayno the Supreme Vampire!

His hands are long and his fingers are bone while long nails stick out and scrape against the wall with a hellish sound!

Ben is frightened by the form Hayno has as he approaches and opens his cloak the clothes are old and worn and when he walks he seems to float through the air, a true elderly vampire..

And a true director as stately bossy and authoritarian if they can be!

Hayno shouts the words!:

Klontoyano-boogitory-boogitory-boogitariya nopity-boogitoriyona!

NO 15

Out and the fallen vampires all come back from the ashes risen and as they are formed like the vampire they once were with the same bloodlust as before but something has changed because Ben is no more Ben is that scared kid with that lovely pulse no more he is one of them, a vampire!

But his eyes are different from theirs. He has red eyes that light up like a laser beam... And a mischievous look that can even frighten the supreme vampire....

This vampire is up to something and they all notice... This vampire is different and does not intend to be stopped by his friends and or family!

This is the vampire of vampires in the undead world that is playing now, but above all this vampire is naughty and naughty!

NO 16

CHAPTER 3
AND EVEN FURTHER!

NO 17

And everyone will find out too! Because this vampire won't stop clearing up the vampiria in a vampiric vampire world full of leech and other vampire things like.....

Fill that in yourself!!

Even the greatest vampire of the vampireians wouldn't be able to handle him and the supreme vampire himself leaves him alone after looking into those red eyes that glow like a brake light or a great tail light!

He blinks his eyes and he's gone! Gone in a cloud of smoke in search of his first victim!

He runs along the bike path at the fastest speed and while running he takes the paving stones with him, leaving a hole in the bike path right in the middle and when those red eyes blink again the light goes out!

NO 18

Then an unsuspecting vampire cycles up and when Ben raises his hand and the cycling vampire looks around, he lies with a breakneck pace and sniffs hard, then Ben calmly walks over to him and slaps his head laughing and grinning, causing him to crush the vampire in 1 blow pulverized and it goes up in flames!

Then the light returns and Ben has a new idea, he comes up with the idea of pulling 8 paving stones from the sidewalk and quickly digging a hole as deep as China and returning the tiles with 16 small and fragile planks to lay!

The first group of vampires is already approaching and they are still acting tough but they will soon die when they fall into the trap Mwuhahahahaha!

But unfortunately they walk over the tiles with the greatest of ease and seem to float over the paving!

Ben doesn't give up and gets mad at himself after all the hard work he's put in!

NO 19

Again he tries the same but this time he makes the sidewalk slippery and slippery by leading green soap in a trail on the ground to the trap.....

And again a group of vampires comes and this group is even bigger than the previous one and even tougher than the last one but this time the plan works and Ben laughs completely drowsy when they do everything they can to stay upright under the green soap but Piece by piece:

Plow, plough, plough, plough, plough, plough, plough, plough
fall into the giant hole!

1 more tries to turn into a cloud of smoke and escape the hole by changing back on the other side, but the remaining green soap under his feet creates the very last one:

Ploef!

Ben can't believe his eyes and has to hold his stomach with laughter!

NO 20

This is great bullying the undead a bit while being the same yourself in the same situation that you yourself have been in!

You know yourself!

Then he hears a hummer speed by with maybe 8 tough vampires in it, one even tougher than the other, because the clothes make the vampire and they all have a leather jacket and chains that go from their jacket to their pants...

But Ben doesn't take it too seriously when they stop right in front of him and honk and then drive off again..

He laughs to himself and as a vampire you are tough and rough and evil and rough but above all strong and faster than a hummer! And when the fast tough vampires hit the gas he holds the hummer so it doesn't move forward!

CHAPTER 4
AND FURTHER!

NO 22

The tires squeal and the smoke from the burnt rubber can already be seen and smelled while Ben keeps holding the hummer, the squealing tires soon turn into screeching whining sounds, when the car tire is completely burnt and the hummer is gone on nothing but the rims trying to drive...

The sparks can be seen as Ben releases the hummer and it lurches across the tarmac to land in the pitfall of first with both front wheels.....

PLOEF!

The windows of the hummer all shatter with a hellish sound:

jingle jingle jingle jingle jingle jingle jingle!

NO 23

The angry vampires all get out of the hummer one by one to end up in the hole one by one, after which the hummer also falls on them! Ben loosens his jaw and there's a laugh they heard a block away!

And yes, there come the vampires already an army of them all angry and rough and tough and furious! A gigantic army of the undead coming his way with a vengeance, and then the hummer is thrown into the hole by the vampires just as 20 or so vampires approach:

SPLATSPLATSPLATS!

The army soon turns against the fallen vampires and it looks like one bum after another tries to climb out of the giant hole as they get knocked down and kicked by an army! Ben tries to hold back his laughter because that's kind of neat and he doesn't feel like taking on 500 vampires right now so he decides to just join the kicking vampire folk!

NO 24

And with every kick he gives, the tough vampires point at him and try to say it's his fault, but just like with humans, there's always someone stronger or tougher than you!

And 500 or so vampires don't listen as they jump into the hole and rip the leather vampires apart one by one....

Then the hummer makes a screeching high and shrill noise and Ben thinks to get out of here, so he quickly runs away as the 500 vampires all stand transfixed with their hands over their ears and all turn to smoke!!

That turned out to be a blessing in disguise and a probing accident....

And when he thinks it's over he hears the rough and heavy voice of Hayno the supreme vampire say in the back of his mind:

So you think you're outsmarting us, hey, I see and know everything! Everything you do, everything you see, everything you know, I know too! So if you think you know how to beat me know I know you know how you think you know how to beat me if only you know because I'm Hayno so I know you think you can outsmart me but everything you plan I know before you, so your ignorance is unprecedented in this war against your own conscience and my omniscience!

Then the voice is gone after a hellish laugh and Ben thinks about the words which have a double meaning because Hayno apparently knows all there is to know except what he doesn't, because no living or undead soul in this world knows everything! Everyone and everything keeps learning every day and it's about time Hayno learned a lesson from Ben's ignorance!

NO 26

For the smart will always run after the stupid in this life, and the one who pretends to be stupid and keeps the smart in his back pocket is the one who has the last laugh! So no matter how ignorant Ben seems and the less he knows the better in a war against a supreme vampire who knows everything!

Ben clenches his fist and his red eyes light up like laser beams in the night and he curses and he shouts at the moon that begins to peer down above the clouds:

COME ON THEN quarrel rammer!

№ 27

CHAPTER 5
AND FURTHER!

NO 28

Immediately Ben hears a distant howl that seems to frighten the vampires... Shadows come and transform into a person on the playing field of the undead!!

And the shadows seem to chase the vampires away by crawling into them and pitting them against each other... But what the shadows actually do is trap the vampires because where the vampires are led the howling came from, and great wolves waiting for them...

The vampires are put through the wringer 1 by 1 and while they don't even fight back due to the many great impotence, the biggest wolf comes to Ben...

Its head is slanted and its jaws are gigantic manglers that flap with every step it takes on two legs!

NO 29

When Ben sees the gigantic beast, his heart sinks into his shoes and he doesn't know where to look for it while the wolf growls at the group and a she-wolf with a guitar in her mouth walks towards it...

Ben says thank you and starts playing but this guitar sounds very different because it doesn't need an amp and sounds as hell as a hungry werewolf!

He plays the stars of heaven with this guitar and walks back to the school where Hayno is waiting for them!

The wolves follow him in a pack of maybe 100 strong, but they're actually tagging along for bacon and beans because the guitar does all the work and all the vampires fall to the ground before Ben or the wolves actually get close.

No 30

The school is closed while one vampire after another falls to the floor and it's not because of the bad playing but because of the high notes that this guitar produces.

He calls this guitar Lisa! The first guitar you can actually play, and the savior of this city and maybe even the world!

Cry Lisa cry! Cry and save the world from this evil!

The wolves keep their distance while Ben walks into the school, they surround the school and make sure no one can get past.. No one gets in but no one gets out either!

Ben makes Lisa cry like he has been doing this for years and it reverberates wonderfully in the empty school, but after having had almost all the classrooms, there is no Hayno to be seen...

He must be here somewhere!

NO 31

Was he looking for a fight? He must be here somewhere!

But after going through all the classrooms, Hayno is still gone and Ben breaks the bottom string out of fatigue on his Lisa.

Immediately the wolves start howling, and then it's quiet but not much after that the ground shakes and he hears footsteps, hundreds of footsteps, thousands and they run!

In the gym, hundreds and hundreds of vampires burst in and push him against the wall, after which Hayno walks in laughing and licking his fangs with his hand over his mouth.

He walks up to Ben and throws him at lightning speed from one side of the gym to the other as the hundreds of vampires laugh at him!

Ben sees the entire gym coming at him maybe 50 times from one corner to the other and from top to bottom... Even inside out and upside down he gets to see the gym..

No 32

Then in the middle of the air Hayno holds him and asks him if he is really that stupid or is he pretending to be so stupid Hayno can't be stopped and he's starting to realize that now too....

But when he begs for something to arm himself with, he sees Lisa lying there and not only that, but Lisa has another secret lying there on the floor...

The bottom string has made way for something new, what kind of guitar is this? He runs over to her and tries to figure out exactly how this works, but Hayno laughs at him:

Did you really think you could handle me with a broken gun go ahead!

NO 33

CHAPTER 6
WE ARE HERE!

No 34

Ben tries his best to connect the strings and the strings catch, first a harp forms and with 1 blow thousands of shadows enter the gym!

Then the harp turns into a sword with all kinds of decorations on it. And while Hayno is no longer smiling, Ben swings the sword from a distance and Hayno is lifted off the ground!

Hey but that's nice!

He sends Hayno flying from one side to the other of the gymnasium and makes him go through the basket like a basketball. He makes him fly through the garbage and makes him fly through the showers that he turns on 1 by 1 to the coldest!

Hayno begs and Hayno apologizes:

Please let me go, please I'm sorry let me go with that sorcery!

NO 35

Ben just laughs and sends him flying all over the school wall after wall Hayno has to endure, even using him as a battering ram to open the locked doors for him. A total humiliation and a total failure, because when they come outside and there is an army of vampires, they also see that Hayno has been defeated....

They all bow to Ben, the new chief vampire, but Ben swings his sword and all the vampires' underpants are pulled up all thousands and thousands get a wedgie!

And then a nipple titter, and then they're all hung with their wedgie on a stake under the omniscient eye of Hayno who gets to endure the very biggest and the one with a giant wedgie that you say to the flagpole above the school is hung.

NO 36

The downfall is so great that he turns into a pile of dust out of pain and impotence, after which all vampires change back to who they once were! Before Hayno came along and turned her into a vampire...

Everyone looks in disbelief at what happened and no one can believe that Ben is the one who saved them. That boy never said much and that boy didn't understand the difference between a lemon and a lime. He wasn't even that stupid!

But he has proven to be everyone's savior and his sword as the wolves retrieve it and the shadows turn him back into Lisa...

Ben says thank you and the biggest shadow approaches, then he stands in front of everyone and says:

NO 37

See what Ben did single-handedly against an army of bullies, and won! Single-handedly saved the world, and single-handedly improved the world! Single-handedly defeating the Supreme Vampire and single-handedly showing you all that even the biggest bully of all can be bullied himself! That it doesn't matter what you look like or how strong or how smart or mean you are, everyone has someone more beautiful, stronger, smarter or meaner....

And although it doesn't seem so because Ben had a learning disability, he turned out to be smarter than all of you, beating you all, one by one, and saving you one by one!

And I think that deserves a little credit, because if he were alone he saved and improved the world by being meaner than the meanest!

NO 38

Everyone claps and not many weeks later there is a statue in the schoolyard of Hayno with his gigantic wedgie on the flagpole and Ben with the sword in 1 hand and his guitar on his back laughing at him together with all the school children, a ginormous statue but one that matters!

The statue of the end of the world but the prelude to a new beginning!

THE END!

THE MORAL!

Do you know this moral, because it is not that difficult, only it did wait a while this time!

And that was also for a reason, because I also know that you are busy looking for the moral in every book, so I have hidden it extra double no triple deep this time!

Mean hey, I'm not the supreme bogeyman for nothing!

But the moral seems simple to me in this booklet because bullies are and always will be bullies! They all think that by being mean they can take on the whole world, but they sometimes forget that they don't like being bullied either!

Even bullies can get bullied as you learned today because what Hayno did to Ben and the whole world, he got back twice as hard in the end!

And where Hayno thought he was supreme Ben was stronger, smarter and meaner than him... And that dear children Is also moral because no matter how stupid people want you to look, even the supreme vampire can be defeated by that mistake so why not those people ?
